- Pre-requisite: None

Course Purpose:

This course is designed for emergency management personnel who are involved in developing emergency operation plans and procedures for their jurisdiction and / or agency.

Course Objectives:

At the end of this course, the students should be able to:

- Describe how recent disasters have changed the way governments at all levels should plan.
- Explain how the Comprehensive Preparedness Guide (CPG) 101 helps State, local, and tribal governments determine and structure their planning requirements.
- Relate emergency planning to National Incident Management System (NIMS) compliance and integration.
- Associate planning principles and concepts to the overall planning process.
- Identify how the steps in the planning process can improve both deliberate and crisis action planning.
- Implement the planning process model for future planning efforts.
- Determine which Emergency Operations Plan (EOP) format is best suited to their jurisdictions.
- This course will also include a review of the Emergency Management Accreditation Program (EMAP) for jurisdictions interested in finding out how adherence to a comprehensive set of standards developed by emergency management peers leads to better program administration, planning and documentation.
