- G288 Local Volunteer and Donations Management is an elective course for the FEMA APS Certificate.
- Class size is limited to 18 students.
- Housing options are available on campus for a fee.
- Information regarding the housing options can be found on the Emergency Management Training section of the NJOEM website.
- For lodging reservations, call 732-974-5951. Rates are $44.00 per night for a single-occupancy room with a queen bed, and $39.00 per night for a dual-occupancy (shared room) with a twin bed.

Course Purpose:

The course is designed to strengthen the abilities of local jurisdictions to successfully prepare for and handle volunteer and donations management issues that may arise. The course content and activities may also serve as a template, thereby enhancing uniformity in addressing areas of donated unsolicited goods, unaffiliated volunteers, and undesignated cash. This training also provides information regarding the state's volunteer and donations management responsibilities, which are designed to help build relationships between government and non-governmental organizations.

Target Audience

This course is designed for emergency management personnel and community volunteer leaders who are involved in response and recovery.
